

FOUR SLAYERS ARE SENTENCED IN BROOKLYN

Alfonso Tedesco and John Kilbride Go to Prison for Life.

Four murderers were to-day sentenced by Judge Crane in the County Court, Brooklyn. They were Alfonso Tedesco, 26; John Kilbride, life; Julius Mayer, thirteen years, and Ferdinand Order, nineteen years.

Tedesco, who is twenty-one years old, shot and killed Vincenzo Muccio and his wife, of No. 49 Court street, on May 10. They had befriended the boy, and one night he entered their living room back of the victim's bootblack shop, and, after robbing them, shot them to death. He had been in prison previously from the time he was fourteen years old until a month before the crime. He pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree.

John Kilbride shot and killed John Kelly at Fox's Hamilton on June 4 and injured the latter's wife. Twenty years ago Kilbride's uncle tried to kill Kelly's father, but they had been out of terms.

Kilbride was given a life sentence, and found Kilbride at his home. The wretched old man had to shoot to get away. In court he was repeatant, and after pleading guilty the judge sentenced him to life.

Julius Mayer shot and killed Gottfried Schuman on June 16. He was convicted of manslaugher in the second degree, and given thirteen years at hard labor.

Ferdinand Order was sentenced to nineteen years at hard labor for the killing of his wife. They were soufflers, and never a pistol when she was fatally shot.

HURLED TO STREET FROM "L" PLATFORM

Brooklyn Man May Die from Injuries Received While Trying to Get Aboard.

William Jennings, of No. 222 Fulton street, Brooklyn, may die as a result of his endeavor to board a train on the Fulton street elevated road early to-day. Just as he reached the station at Vanderbilt avenue a train arrived, when the guards promptly signalled the start, before Jennings had passed through the gates at the window of the ticket agent. The young man grabbed the platform edge of the second car and attempted to open them. The guard, adhering to the rules of the company that the gates of a moving train must not be reopened, resisted Jennings at a moment when the swinging open of the gates would have prevented what had happened.

Jennings, who had the signs of the attack, struggled against the guard to maintain his position on the moving train. A projecting railing at the end of the platform caught Jennings, and hurled him to the street. He was unconscious when admitted to the Cumberland Street Hospital. His recovered consciousness long enough to tell his name and to give a sketch of his experience. The young man is temporarily injured and suffering from shock.

HONDURAS READY TO ARBITRATE

Willing to Disarm as Soon as Guatemala and Salvador Fall in Line.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Honduras is willing to disarm and submit its grievances to arbitration as soon as Guatemala and Salvador do to likewise.

A dispatch announcing Honduras' willingness to arbitrate was received to-day by the State Department from Philip H. Brown, the American chargé, who is looking after the interests of the United States in Honduras and Guatemala during the absence of León Cordero, the American Minister to Honduras, who was on his way to the United States when he broke out and has not yet been able to get back to his post at Guatemala City.

The chargé, in his memorandum to Salvador, said: "The department to-day that he is still negotiating with the Salvadoran authorities, trying to get them to agree to disarm and meet Guatemalan forces at Washington or elsewhere, to arrange for a settlement of the disputes."

PHILADELPHIA, July 14.—According to an agreement signed at Corinto six months ago the Republics of San Salvador and Honduras became allies for defensive purposes.

The Associated Press has received the following telegram from the President of the Republic of Honduras:

"TELEGRAM, N.Y., July 16.—Honduras has not declared war.

Guatemala, without justification or reason, has invaded the territory of the Republic, and the whole country has come to the national defense."

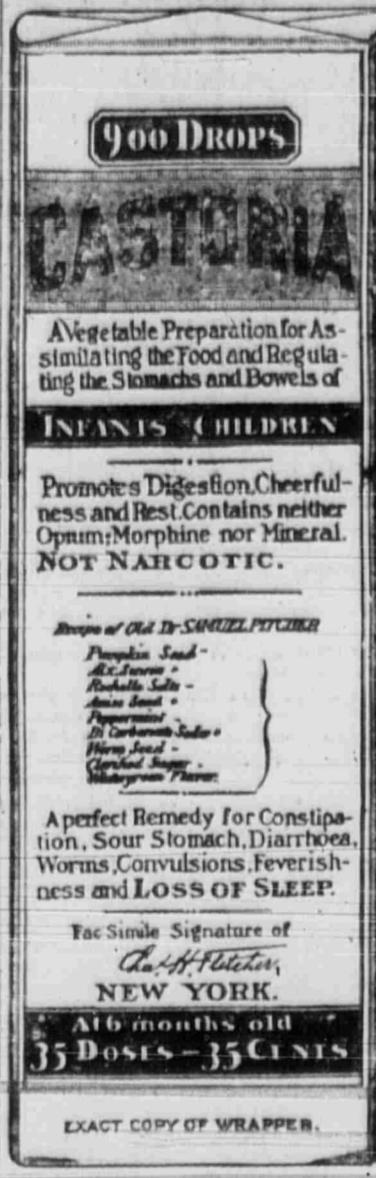

"MANUEL BONILLA."

No One Injured Except Little Girl, and She Promptly Ran Away Home.

A collision between a Fulton street car and a Summer avenue car at Troy avenue and Fulton street this afternoon resulted in suspension of trolley traffic on the two lines for more than half an hour. A little girl was slightly injured in the accident, but her name could not be ascertained.

The Summer avenue car was bound for the Broadway and the Fulton street car for the Brooklyn. On Summer avenue the swing into Fulton street from Troy avenue and run for some distance on the Fulton street.

A crowded Fulton street car jammed a Summer avenue car which careered off the turn and boy was derailed.

Tomorrow Will Be the Easy Day To Buy a PIANO with a Player

EVERYBODY loves music; and it is never more desired than in the summer in the country.

Perhaps you do not wish to buy a fine new Angelus Piano for the summer cottage. Then you'll appreciate the occasion we announce for tomorrow.

We have fixed up and tuned up a lot of worthy Used Pianos, and combined them with used Angelus Piano Players and similar instruments which we have taken in exchange.

Not only have we marked very low prices on the individual instruments, but we have also made a combination price, still lower, for the two instruments sold together. In addition, we will accept a very small cash payment and arrange easy monthly payments afterward, as shown in the list below.

We also offer group of SYMPHONY Self-Playing Organs, ANGELUS Piano-Players and other instruments, at midsummer prices—all on the easiest terms, if you do not wish to pay cash.

The opportunity is unusual and remarkable. Note the items:
